Do you have some coins in your house? Have a look at them. What pictures can you see? What numbers are on them? Which coins are cents? Which coins are dollars? What colour are they?	Look at cans, or cereal boxes in your pantry. What letters can you see? Can you read any of the words? Maybe design your own can or breakfast cereal and write down the title or draw a picture of what it will look like.	Indoor raining game! Find an empty bucket. Get 10 pairs of socks all rolled up. Stand away from the bucket and see if you can throw the socks in the bucket. Count how many you got in. What happens if you try from further away?
Can you write the names of the people in your family? Can you write your full name (first, middle and last name)? Try writing them a few times. Where did your name come from? Talk to someone in your whanau about your name.	Practice writing letters on someone's back using your finger. Did they guess what the letter was?? Can you write any words on their back? What about numbers?? Get the person to write on your back. Can you guess what letter they wrote?	This is Alfred Alligator. He is kind and helpful. Write a story or draw a picture where you are being kind and helpful.
