

Hosting Liz Kane at Deanwell School has created a wonderful fundraising opportunity.

We have offered to cater morning tea and lunch for our visiting teachers on 30th & 31st March.

Liz Kane a structured literacy expert is coming to Deanwell to upskill all our employees and some of our colleagues from other schools in the art and science of teaching English

We are fundraising to purchase literacy games for each classroom.

We are wanting to know if we have any whānau that would be willing to: -

- donate fruit, homebaking or anything for finger food for lunch?
- help serve and tidy up after morning tea and lunch for our guests?

Please contact Pam Quirke on pamq@deanwell.school.nz or phone Michelle in the office if you are able to help with this fundraiser. We would greatly appreciate your support

Easter break!

(BACK ON WEDNESDAY 7TH APRIL)

Our last day in school this week is Thursday before we finish for our Easter break.

There is NO SCHOOL on Good Friday, Easter Monday or Tuesday.

We return to school on Wednesday 7th April as normal.

School Lunches

Copied from an article from stuff titled...

More factory than kitchen: PM steps behind the scenes at school lunch programme

Jacinda Ardern wandered around the Hamilton-based kitchen on Thursday 25th March, meeting chefs, caterers, assemblers and packers.

Large pots of chicken pasta salad were being cooked up and mixed for the lunchbox, accompanied by piles of grapes and packets of popcorn.

We received this lunch on Friday 26th March. It was delicious! It was thoroughly enjoyed by all. PQ

Health & Safety

Please use the ROUNDABOUT

I ask that all our people use the roundabout by the dairy to turn around on Deanwell Avenue rather than a U turn or pulling into the the staff car park and backing back onto the road.

There was an incident in Auckland recently where a schoolgirl was hit and killed.

We all need to be modelling this behaviour to our tamariki to ensure their safety. PQ
