Manaakitanga

Mindfulness: What can you do over the next few days to be kind to someone else in your household? Draw a picture or take a photo of an Act of Kindness, so you can share what you've done.

My family knows...

How to scavenger hunt.

- Can you find:
- 5 different shades of green
 - 5 oddly shaped sticks
 - 5 little things that roll
 - 5 things that start with the sound 'ch'
 - 5 things that have 3 syllables in their name

Whakapakari Tinana:

Using a deck of cards, shuffle them and get 20 cards face down. Flip the first card and complete the exercise that matches that suit according to the number on the card:

	Push-ups		Star Jumps
	Sit-ups		Squats

Example: Flip a 2 of hearts, do 2 push-ups.

Ngātahi

Showing Gratitude: Write a letter, email or card to someone in your whānau. Tell them 3 things you love about them and 1 reason you are thankful for them.

STEM Challenge

Build a fort!

Use some chairs, blankets, sheets, and pillows to build a fort in your room or lounge at home. This will be an awesome spot to do your reading and other mahi for the day too, just try not to fall asleep!

Tuhituhi - Writing

Choose a picture that inspires you to write from the following prompts at the bottom of this page.

Aumangea

Grit interviews: Interview someone from your whānau or an acquaintance (in your bubble otherwise on the phone/video call) who has worked hard towards a long-term goal. You can ask questions like: What have been some of your goals in life? What steps did you take to achieve these goals? What did you do when it became hard? Did you ever want to give up? How did you feel when you were successful?

Te Reo Māori

Label your (super clean!!) bedroom with these words and practice using them every day.

Bed - moenga
Door - kūaha
Drawer - toroa
Light switch - pana mirror - whakaata
pillow - pera
Blanket - paraikete
Brush - paraihe
Teddybear - teti pea

Ako:

Create a colourwheel using things found around the house. For example: a yellow lemon, green leaf, blue toy, purple sock, red tomato.

Place them in a circle in the correct colour wheel order. Take a photo to share with your teacher.

Writing Prompts: Choose a picture to create a story about.
