My family knows...

My family knows how to guess what's in the box. With your whānau, put random items from around the house into a box. Taking turns, randomly choose an item out of the box so the other people can't see what you chose. Try and describe the item until someone guesses it correctly. But be careful, you can't use the item's name in your description. Good luck!

Ako:

Get some statistics. Go for a walk and gather data on all the different coloured cars you see. Use a tally chart to gather your data. When you get home, you can use this information to make a bar graph showing what you found out.

Ngātahi

Rhyming Add ons: Gather your whānau for this activity. Hop in a circle and decide who is going first, they start the rhyme. They can choose to say a word or a sentence. The next person in the circle must say a word or sentence that rhymes with the first, then it's the next person's turn. If someone repeats a word, or can't think of one, they're out.

STEM Challenge

Using a napkin, paper towel, string, or any other materials you have at home, build a parachute and basket that can float an object safely to the ground.

Egg-streme challenge: could you make it strong enough to safely float an egg to the ground.

Aumangea

Aumangea is about being confident and resilient. Thinking about our return to school. What things do you need to prepare at home, or in your thoughts, so that you are confident to return to school.

Karakia
