Harakeke Raranga

Kererū Rua

I whai wāhi mīharo rawa atu a Kererū Rua ki te mahi harakeke me Whāea Rereata rāua ko Matua Matt. I tā mātou, i whakatō kākano, i hanga ika harakeke, ā, i tūhura hoki mātou me pēhea te whakamahi i ngā kākano hei hanga hē kirimi ringa. I hono mai ō mātou hoa nō Pipi Manu Rima me Ono ki te wheako i tēnei āheinga. He mihi hoki ki ō mātou whānau i tae mai ki te pārekareka tahi ki tēnei wheako.

Kererū Rua had an absolutely amazing time doing mahi harakeke with Whāea Rereata and Matua Matt. We drew, planted seeds, made woven harakeke fish, and also explored how the seeds could be used to make hand cream. Our friends from Pipi Manu Rima and Ono joined us to experience this opportunity. We also give thanks to our whānau who came to enjoy this experience with us.

Harakeke Raranga

Pipi Manu Rima & Ono

Pipi Manu Rima and Ono had the opportunity to experience some mahi harakeke in the hall with Whāea Rereata and Matua Matt. We became familiar with harakeke and how flaxseed oil is made , planted seeds and explored its uses through raranga by weaving ika harakeke.
